For thousands of years the healing powers of the Great Salt Lake, America's Dead Sea, have been known to only a few. Native Americans made special journeys to bathe in the lake's curative waters and pioneer settlers bathed in the organic waters to help cure ailments and reenergize tired bodies.

Ojaván mineral mud is formed as the healing waters of the Great Salt Lake expand and evaporate allowing the minerals and salt to be absorbed into the mud. This natural mud contains over 80 minerals and elements essential to healthy skin. Ojaván salts are naturally solar evaporated. We choose only the fine grade salt for Maka Ashih, for its exfoliating properties.
